asurar kudi kedutha aiyaa varuha yennai yaalum ilaiyon kaiyil pannirendu aayutham paasaan gusamum parantha vzhihal pannirandu ilanga (25)

Come, come friend who lives within me,
Come lord who spoiled the lives of Asuras,
Come with the wide open twelve graceful eyes,
Come with weapons and pasa and angusa in your twelve hands,
Come, Oh young lord, who rules over me.

(Pasa is the rope and Angusa is a weapon to control).

aiyum kiliyum adaivudan sauvum uyyoli sauvum uyiraiyum kiliyum kiliyum sauvum kilaroli yayium nilai petrenmun nithamum olirum (30)

Come Oh, Lord of Vel to protect me fast, Let Aaim, Klim and Saum which reach to you,
The Saum with its brilliant light,
The Klim which is like the soul,
And Klim, Saum and the sweet sounding Aaim, Stand and shine before me.

(Aaim, Klim and Saum form the part of the Bhija manthra (seed invocation) that denotes Lord Skanda).

Come Oh, Six headed one,

He who lives in Kadamba forest,
He who is Muruga with the sweet Vel,
Who defeated Idumba and Kadamba asuras, (Gaha and Muruga are other names for Skanda. When he was born, he took the form of six babies who were looked after by the six Kadamba maidens. He lives to live in Kadamba forest. He is supposed to have defeated two asuras called Idumba and Kadamba and made them his devotees).

Hey lord who lives on Thiruthani mountains,
Hey lord who is the son of Lord Shiva,
Hey Lord Muruga, with shining Vel, Hey Lord, who lives in Kathirgamam,
Hey young Kumara who lives in the city of Pazhani, Hey pretty Vela, who lives in Thiruvainputi, Hey, Sengalva rayya who lives on Seethi mountains,
Hey king, Shammuga who lives in Samarapuri, (Thiruthani, Kathirgamam, Pazhani, Thiruvainputi, Seethi Mountains and Samarapuri are famous temples of Skanda. He is also known as Vela and Kumara).
